NUMBER 3.

A number of the fruit trees in this locality are in bloom for the second time this year.

Little Annie Gayle, a four year old daughter of Mr. R. H. Gayle, died Wednesday morning of membranous croup.

R. W. Stancell, of the Bible College, Lexington, will preach in the Christian Church at Bridgeport the third Sunday of this month, morning and evening.

Rev. W. McD. Abbott, having rented his residence in Belle Point, will shortly remove with his wife to Carrollton, where they will make their future home.

The waiting rooms at the depot in this city have been torn away and new and comfortable ones are being built. When completed they will be a great improvement over the old ones.

The boom Monday at the great Arcade dry goods, clothing and millinery establishment of Messrs. Harris & Herrmann was felt all over the city by the other merchants. They say they have not had as good a day's business in months.

Mr. Jos. H. Bailey, who has been U. S. Gauger-Storekeeper at the Cedar Run Distillery for the past six months, has been transferred to the Dedman Distillery at Oregon, Woodford county. Mr. Joseph Doehrer, of Lexington, succeeds him at the Cedar Run Distillery.

The property holders on Second street, South Frankfort, between Logan and Murray, have been ordered to grade and Macadamize the street in front of their property. This is something new for South Frankfort, as such work has heretofore been done at the city's expense.

Col. Geo. R. Dunlap was thrown from his buggy Tuesday morning, while on his way to the Old Crow Distillery, where he is Storekeeper, and had one of his arms badly hurt and received other painful bruises. His horse became frightened at some object on the road-side, and overturned the buggy.

Two colored men, Ben. Mosby and Reuben Walls got into a quarrel about a pint of gin Saturday afternoon, on Market street, near the depot, which resulted in Mosby stabbing Walls in the left breast just above the heart, severing a rib and causing his death almost immediately. The murdered man had but one leg, but was very stout, had served one term in the penitentiary, and had the reputation of being an unobtrusive man. The murderer has been employed as porter at the grocery of Mr. John Kiernan for some time, and had been a rather dangerous negro. Mosby had an examining trial Wednesday morning before Esquire McDonald and Judge Sneed and was held over to the Circuit Court, which meets Monday, in the sum of $300.

Circuit Court meets Monday and several criminal cases of interest will be tried, among them the murder cases of John Finn and Ben. Mosby.

The departure of a couple of beautiful young ladies, residents of Versailles, from our midst has cast a gloom over the faces of a goodly number of our beaux, relieved only by the remembrance of the fact that Versailles is only fourteen miles off and horses and buggies are still to be had.

On Monday Mr. N. I. McDaniel sold to Capt. S. V. Pence the lot on Kentucky Avenue, Belle Point, on which his house was burned several weeks since, for one thousand dollars; five hundred cash and five hundred in twelve months. Capt. Pence will shortly begin the erection of a handsome residence upon it.

If you want to see something handsome just drop into Mr. John T. Buckley's tin store and take a look at his stock of Crown Jewel and West Point base burner stoves. He has a full stock of other patterns of heating stoves which he will take pleasure in showing you, and which he is offering at very reasonable prices.

Owing to the rain last Sunday the baptizing at North Fork Baptist Church, this county, was postponed until to-morrow morning, at which time it will take place at 9½ o'clock. There will be preaching at eleven o'clock as usual. The meeting still continues and there had been eighteen additions to the Church up to Tuesday.

Miss Alice F. Clark and Mr. Frank C. Hutchison were married Wednesday morning at the residence of Mr. R. L. Grinstead, in Belle Point, Rev. E. A. Penick officiating. The young couple left for Louisville on the 8:20 train, where they remained until yesterday afternoon, when they returned to this city. Frank can be found this morning at his post behind the counter at Mr. John T. Buckley's ready to receive the congratulations of his friends.

A difficulty occurred between Messrs. Bob Owens and Peter Updike, two neighbors living out on the Flat Creek 'pike, Tuesday morning, in which each was rather roughly handled. The fuss grew out of Owens' hogs getting into Updike's yard, and Mrs. U. set the dog upon them to drive them out. Owens, in driving the dog off the hogs, struck it with a rock and crippled it, at which Updike became enraged and undertook to whip Owens in a fist fight but was knocked out of time the first round. About this time Mrs. Updike appeared on the field to reinforce her husband and struck Owens with a rock, sending him to grass. At this point some gentlemen who were passing along the road came up and stopped the fight in time to save bloodshed, as Owens had gotten out his knife and was preparing to use it upon the Updikes.

The Democratic primary election last Saturday resulted in the nomination of the following gentlemen: For County Judge, R. A. Thomson; for County Attorney, Jas. A. Violet; for County Clerk, Jas. G. Crockett; for Sheriff, E. O. Hawkins; for Jailor, Dan. Sheehan; for Assessor, Robert Sanford; for Coroner Alex. McEwan; for Surveyor, D. M. Woodson; for Constable in this district, J. W. Gaines.

It is surprising the number of hogs that are being shipped at the distilleries in and near this city. At the E. H. Taylor, Jr. Co., there are 2,700; at the Hermitage 750; at Jno. Cochran & Co's, 500; at the Old Crow 800; at J. Swigert Taylor's 500; making a total of 5,250. This is a pretty good showing. These distilleries are prepared to feed a large number of cattle in addition to this showing of swine.

Kincid, the acrobat that turned the double somersault over the elephants in Forepaugh's circus when it exhibited here, in attempting to perform the same feat at Pulaski, Tennessee, fell on his head and received injuries from which he died Monday. One of the acrobats that was here a day or two after, with the Humpty Dumpty Troupe, in attempting to turn a double somersault, a few days after leaving here struck his head against one of the bars and was seriously injured.

The grand opening of the mammoth Arcade Dry Goods, Clothing, and Millinery establishment of Messrs. Harris & Herrmann Monday was a success, as is everything with which this enterprising firm has to do. From the opening of the doors in the morning until the closing at night the house was jammed with ladies and gentlemen, looking at the very handsome display of goods and making purchases. In the afternoon a large paper balloon twenty-eight feet in height was sent up from the roof of the building, while St. Clair and Main streets were filled with people to witness the ascent and listen to the music furnished by South's Band. At this time the crowd and building were photographed by Mr. H. G. Mattern, who has the picture on exhibition at his Main street gallery. At night the band again played in front of the building and the people filled the street and house to overflowing until a late hour. Everyone enjoyed the display and pronounced it equal to an exposition. Although Messrs. Harris & Herrmann did not expect to sell anything on that day, only expecting the people to come and look, every clerk in the establishment was kept busy waiting upon customers and when the day was done it was found that it had been exceedingly profitable. The ladies were loud in their praise of the millinery department, and a large number of hats and bonnets were disposed of. The event was one which will not soon be forgotten in this city.

FRANKFORT, OCTOBER 15, 1881.

Death of Miss Jennie Bull.

Our city was deeply pained on Tuesday morning at the announcement of the death of that most estimable young lady, Miss Jennie P. Bull, eldest daughter of Mr. S. C. Bull, which occurred Monday night at 10 o'clock. She had been sick but a little more than a week with typhoid fever, and although it was known that she was quite ill, few dreamed that her illness would terminate fatally, and all were greatly shocked when her death was announced. In the springtime of life, when a bright and happy future lay before her, she was taken to the Father, "who doeth all things well," leaving an aching void in the hearts of those who loved her so dearly, and are now bowed down with an inconsolable grief; but they can find comfort in the thought that she has only gone up higher, and awaits them upon the other shore.

Out of respect to her memory, the City School, in which she had been a teacher for several years, was closed during Tuesday and Wednesday, by order of the Trustees; and the School Board, teachers and scholars attended her funeral in a body. Her funeral, which took place Wednesday morning from the Presbyterian Church, was one of the largest ever seen in this city, every seat being packed and the aisles in the rear of the Church and the vestibule filled with persons standing up. During the entire services the majority of the congregation was bathed in tears. The remarks of Rev. J. W. Pugh on the occasion were very short, solemn, and appropriate.

The following young gentlemen acted as pall bearers, the majority of whom were members of the same class at school with the deceased: Dudley Watson, Finlay F. Bush, Frank Rodman, Albert H. Crutcher, Emmet T. Quin, Willoughby Rodman, Alfred Grant, H. Pope Hawkins, Thos. L. DeLine, Jos. LeCompte.

The procession reached the full length of Main street, from the Church to the foot of Arsenal Hill.

Mr. Darsie preaches to-morrow night on "Helping God." The usual service in the morning.

The Good Templars will meet at their hall in Odd Fellows' Temple, next Thursday evening at 7½ o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

Lost.—About a week ago, between the tailor-shops of Morris & Alstrom and V. Berberich, a pair of gold spectacles, the finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving them at R. K. McClure & Bro's.

Gen. Thos. A. Harris delivered a very interesting and instructive lecture on the subject of Education before the pupils of Kentucky Eclectic Institute yesterday afternoon.

The Sheriff has levied on the Major Hall property for county taxes to the amount of $504 due for years 1877, 1878, 1879 and 1880. Another debt that the last Council should have attended to.

Personal.

Mr. John Jurey has returned from Georgetown.

Mr. John P. Starks returned Wednesday from his Southern trip.

Mrs. Geo. A. Lewis and Miss Belle Giltner will leave for Louisville this afternoon.

Prof. K. B. Grahn, of the Ashland Independent, was in the city the first of the week.

Hon. Henry L. Stone, of Mt. Sterling, is in the city, the guest of Judge Thos. F. Hargis.

Mrs. H. G. Mattern and Miss Annie Jones left Thursday afternoon for a visit to Louisville.

Miss Sallie Hughes returned Monday from a visit of several weeks to friends in Louisville.

Mrs. Oscar Roberts returned Thursday from a two weeks visit to relatives in Bridgeport.

Mr. R. B. Wilson returned to this city Wednesday after several months spent in Philadelphia.

Misses Monie Tate and Nanie Archer left for Louisville Monday afternoon to attend school.

Rev. J. W. Pugh has been attending the meeting of the Synod of Kentucky at Lancaster this week.

Mrs. Jas. L. Watson, of Lexington, is visiting her parents, Capt. H. I. Todd and wife, in this city.

Mrs. J. W. Hunt Reynolds and daughter have returned from a visit to relatives in Shalordsville, North Carolina.

Misses Effie, Alma, and Iva Miles returned Saturday from a visit of several months to Point-Au-Pelee, Canada.

Mr. Ransford, of the Owensboro Messenger and Examiner, was in the city this week, the guest of Dr. J. Q. A. Stewart.

Mr. Ed. F. Berry, who has been living in San Francisco, California, the past year, returned to this city Wednesday morning.

Miss Hettie Godfrey, who has been visiting Miss Christina McEwan, left for Midway Monday, to visit Mrs. J. W. McEwan.

Mr. W. H. Polk, formerly of the Transcript but now Lexington correspondent of the Courier-Journal, was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. M. J. Saffell, Mrs. W. S. Saffell and daughter, left for Louisville Tuesday afternoon to visit friends. They will return this afternoon.

Mr. Sidney French is attending the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars in Louisville this week, as a delegate from Capital Lodge, No. 269, in this city.

Mr. H. C. Baker, who has been occupying a position behind the counter at the drug store of Mr. Jos. LeCompte, left Monday afternoon for New York to reside.

Mrs. H. W. Barrett, of Georgetown, District of Columbia, who has been visiting the family of Mr. D. C. Barrett the past month, left for home Monday afternoon.

Mr. Russell Sneed returned home Wednesday morning to perfect his arrangements to remove to St. Louis. He left the same afternoon for his future home. He says he has a good position with one of the best houses in that city.

Rev. J. M. Lewis and daughter, Miss Eugenia, this city, Mr. W. B. Allison and wife, little Misses Fannie and Bessie Lewis, this county, and Mr. J. M. Lewis and wife, of Richmond, Virginia, formed a party that left this city Thursday morning to visit the Louisville Exposition.

E. P. BRYAN, Agent.

Alas! Poor Yorick-town!

The boys looked real sweet in their new uniforms.

As the days grow shorter the gas bills grow longer.

Mr. Milton McGrew has removed to his new residence in South Frankfort.

Mr. Sam. Harris is thinking of opening a second hand clothing store in this city.

The weather of the past two weeks has been splendid for the tobacco and the newly sown wheat.

Mr. W. T. McCloy and surveying party are locating the line of the Frankfort, Georgetown & Paris Railroad between this city and Georgetown this week.

The officers of the military companies of this city that call out "left" or "hep" for left, while drilling, should be court-martialed and shot.

The curling for the new pavement at the South end of the bridge is being put down, and the pavement will soon be laid, and the South Siders are correspondingly happy.

By way of a change, the street at the South end of the bridge has been torn up again, this time to take up and relay the terra cotta sewer pipe that was put down last fall and winter.

There appears to be a slight hope that the Big Sandy Railroad will bring coal to this city by the first of December that can be sold at a lower price than it is at present commanding—25 cents.

The Masonic Grand Lodge and Grand Chapter will meet in Louisville next week. The latter Monday night and the former Tuesday morning. Several gentlemen from this city will go down to attend the meeting.

We have not heard of "pink eye" troubling the horses in this locality, but some of the boys had black eyes after the election last Saturday, and there is lots of red eye to be found almost anywhere in the city.

Mr. N. I. McDaniel purchased on Monday, of Mr. Landon Thomas, the frame house and lot in Belle Point formerly owned by Dr. J. J. Wilson, for fourteen hundred dollars cash. He is occupying it at present as a residence.

"When I was at Yorktown."

There will be Sunday-school at the Belle Point school-house to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

All persons having claims against the estate of W. B. Perry, deceased, are requested to present them within the next twenty days.

E. WHITESIDES, Administrator.

Mr. Sig. Luscher is digging another large cellar at his Capital Brewery, and will enlarge the Brewery building by extending it over the new cellar. The large increase in his business necessitates the addition.

Prof. Marco, the ventriloquist, mesmerist, pianist and vocalist, will give an entertainment at Major Opera House this afternoon, at which he will give away a number of presents, and everyone will receive a package of candy.

The grand jury of Woodford county indicted Frank Steele for murder in the first degree for the killing of W. G. Welch. His case was called in the circuit court Wednesday and continued until the April term, and he was sent to jail without bail.

Messrs. Davison & Williams, of Lexington, have rented the store-room of Mr. V. Kaltenbrun, next to the Post-office, and have opened a plumbers establishment in it. There is no reason why these gentlemen should not do a good business in this city, and we wish them success.

Maj. J. Alex. Grant has rented of Gen. A. W. Dudley half of the double house on Broadway, formerly owned by Col. D. Howard Smith, and has removed to it. Mr. J. M. Stephens has rented the house in South Frankfort vacated by Maj. Grant, known as the Orphan's Home, and will move in shortly.

The McCreary Guards, thirty strong, under command of Capt. J. L. Price, and Lieutenants John Milan and George L. Payne, left yesterday morning by special train for Yorktown to participate in the celebration of the centennial anniversary of the surrender of Cornwallis. They were out in their new uniforms for the first time Thursday afternoon, when they were inspected by Adjutant General Nuckols, and made a very good appearance. We hope they will have a good time, enjoy their trip, come back and draw pensions for the gallant and distinguished service we know they will render. Following is a list of the non-commissioned officers and privates that have gone:

Non-commissioned Officers—Orderly Sergeant, C. Gran. Graham; 2d Sergeant, T. J. Crutcher; 3d Sergeant, Charles Bridgeford; 1st Corporal, Will. Shelton; 2d Corporal, R. A. Bohannon; 3d Corporal, F. M. Graham; 4th Corporal, E. T. Quinn.

Privates—Lee Buckley, T. F. Berry, Frank Cannon, W. J. Dudley, Alvin Davall, Jr., Richard Godson, Will. Gordon, J. N. Hutchison, E. J. Haly, D. A. Lynch, John Murphy, J. A. Noonan, Ed. O'Hara, C. G. Payne, James Rodman, Robert Stephens, H. T. Stephens, John Sargent, C. E. Taylor, Jr., T. B. Tremere, Will. Allen and R. S. Allen, drummers.

They were escorted to the depot by the Nuckols Guards and a large crowd of citizens, who gave them a good-bye cheer.

Drop in and see the new plumbers, Messrs. Davidson & Williams, next door to the Post-office.

It looks as though we are to have a second spring this year. The fruit trees and flowers are all beginning to bloom again. A lady in South Frankfort has a snow-ball bush that is as full of blooms now as last spring.

Col. A. Wood Merryweather, whom everybody in Scranton, Pa., knows, writes and says: "I had long suffered from a derangement of the bladder and kidneys; it had made my general health very poor. I also was troubled with severe indigestion; pills gave me only temporary relief, and I experienced great anxiety of mind, as well as physical distress. A friend recommended Brown's Iron Bitters. I have used it with most gratifying results, and just now my health never was better, and I feel that the cure is permanent."

A Good Move.

At a meeting of the Wholesale and Retail Liquor Dealers Union of Frankfort, Ky., held Wednesday evening Oct. 12th, 1881, at their room in the Sower Building, the following resolutions were read and adopted:

Resolved, That we earnestly request all saloon keepers doing business in this city to keep their places of business strictly closed on Sundays, and that they refuse to sell or give liquor to anyone on that day.

2 That the same be published in the Dispatch, Yeoman and Roundabout.

D. L. HALY, Pres.

Alton.

Peaches and tomatoes are scarce.

A second crop of lettuce has appeared.

Miss Lullie Stephens, of Frankfort, is visiting in the village.

Miss Bettie McAfee, Eldorado, took in the hop Thursday night.

Prof. Marco gave an exhibition at Catlett Hall Thursday night. An album for the prettiest lady was presented to Miss Lullie Stephens.

Mr. John Roberts and Miss Mary New were married at the Christian Church Wednesday night, Elder Geo. Shields performing the ceremony.

The pleasure and entertainment of "we walk-dovers" at the hop Thursday night was greatly increased by the sweet voices of Misses Emma Wilson and Maggie Tracy and Mrs. Jas. Tracy in song. Some other ladies, whose names we did not learn, also participated in the music.

Quite a little stir was created in Alton Thursday, occasioned by the marriage of Mr. Will. Ragan, of Alton, and Miss Nanie Sanders, of Salvisa, which occurred at the latter place at 3 o'clock. Some eight or ten couples went up from here to witness the ceremony. The happy couple returned at night, when a reception was given to a few invited guests at the residence of the groom, after which a grand hop at the Catlett House was given by the young men of Alton. The affair was very recherché in every detail, and was greatly enjoyed by all who participated. A number of ladies and gentlemen from a distance attended the hop.

CASUAL VISITOR

Bridgeport.

Sorghum making next.

Mrs. Sallie Gaines is quite ill.

Mrs. Julia Bailey has been quite ill.

Master Davie Sparrow has been quite ill. Born.—To Mr. Richard Armstrong and wife, a son.

Dr. Geo. Chinn, who has been quite ill, is able to be out again.

Uncle Tommie Rodgers and family have moved to Shelby county.

Little Daisey and Mervin Parrent have been quite ill with diphtheria.

Mr. William Wilson and wife, of Alton, visited friends in this section last week.

Mrs. Gad. Davis, of Louisville, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. Russell Hawkins.

Little Miss Emma Russell, who has been visiting relatives in Eminence, has returned home.

Mr. D. D. Parker, wife, and son, Clarence, of Parington, have been visiting friends in this vicinity this week.

Mrs. Fannie Angrave and Mrs. Maria Rump, who have been visiting friends in Louisville have returned home.

Colie Crockett and Andy Read are the boss hunters. Joe and Billie are also very fond of the sport, but Set. and Mag. do the bossing.

Mr. John Cavanaugh, a deaf mute, gave a pantomime entertainment at this place last Wednesday evening. Those who attended it were much pleased.

Mr. George Hawkins and family, of Woodford county, passed through this place this week, en route for Indiana, where they expect to reside in future.

The protracted meeting at the Christian Church, conducted by Elder Howard Wilson, of Winchester, during the two weeks ending October 7th, resulted in twenty additions.

The primary election last Saturday for county officers passed off quietly. The friends of the successful candidates celebrated the event by firing an anvil for several hours Saturday night.

The balloon sent up last Monday by Messrs. Harris & Herrmann, at Frankfort, after having spent its force, fell in a field of Mr. A. Julian's and created quite a sensation, especially among the children and colored population.

SCOVENDYKE.

Good Advice From a Leading Medical Professor.

The learned doctor says: "Keep some kind of a tonic medicine always in the house, and if anyone feels unwell, make free use of it. But first be sure that it is both harmless as well as meritorious. Put no trust in alcoholic preparations; their use will lead to intemperance; neither be partial to any remedy that produces a severe cathartic effect, for prostration of the nervous system and digestive organs is sure to follow. The mildest and best medicine ever invented for strengthening every part of the body and restoring impaired or lost organic functions to their normal condition, and one which is having an unparalleled and rapidly increasing sale in the Eastern States, is Brown's Iron Bitters. Any druggist will procure it for you if you request him to do so, especially when he finds you cannot be persuaded to take some substitute. It does not contain alcohol, and is the only preparation of Iron that cures headache and does not blacken the teeth. It is a sure reviver, a true strengthener, and the very best medicine ever invented for permanently strengthening the pulmonary, urinary and digestive organs, and preventing consumption, kidney diseases and chronic dyspepsia, often curing these diseases when all other remedies have failed; for it is truly nature's best assistant."—Gazette.

In the Whole History of Medicine

No preparation has ever performed such marvellous cures, or maintained so wide a reputation, as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which is recognized as the world's remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs. Its long-continued series of wonderful cures in all climates has made it universally known as a safe and reliable agent to employ. Against ordinary colds, which are the forerunners of more serious disorders, it acts speedily and surely, always relieving suffering, and often saving life. The protection it affords, by its timely use in throat and chest disorders, makes it an invaluable remedy to be kept always on hand in every home. No person can afford to be without it, and those who have once used it never will. From their knowledge of its composition and operation, physicians use the CHERRY PECTORAL extensively in their practice, and clergymen recommend it. It is absolutely certain in its healing effects, and will always cure where cures are possible.
